1. Information received from Argentine circles in Asuncion states that a military movement against Peron is being headed by the Argentine Generals Oscar Silva, Basilio Pertine and Filomeno Velazco, all known to be extreme nationalists. Also reported involved in the movement is General Franklin Lucero, recently Argentine Military Attache in Washington.
2. In Asuncion it is further reported that Naval Captain Julio Miqueo, head of the Argentine Naval Mission in Paraguay, is in the confidence of Peron while Lieutenant Colonel Fausto Spinoza, Military Attache of the Argentine Embassy at Asuncion, is a follower of General Sosa Molina, Argentine Minister of War.
